

Individual Immersion Courses at Amira

For each student, learning a language is a superb flight into personal creativity. First there is the fun. Adult education is not boring. At Amira, the words 'lively' and 'non-academic' fit easily with 'step by step' and 'structure'. This is the art and the science of professional language teaching.

It is this skill with which we respond to your practical and educational needs, interweaving a natural approach to culture. The language opens the door to a new country. You step through, engage with the people, see their way of doing business, listen to the songs and meet the culture face on. You return thereby with a new taste for your own language and its richness. What looked traditionally like a challenge is transformed into a delightful journey.

Since 1983, Amira has helped thousands of newcomers to Brussels enter a new language world. Whatever is the language and your present knowledge, the important point is that you are here with all your vigour and motivation. At Amira, you will enjoy an exploration which is uniquely you in new words, while you acquire the clear and elegant patterns of the best speakers.

Our experienced and enthusiastic teachers will give you confidence as you develop your own natural feel for the new idioms. With such top teachers, super methods and in comfortable classrooms, you will be using the language all through your course. Immersions can be the most profitable experience. Teachers love them. Students have an immediate sense of progress and results. They are the best.
