

Amira Language School in the heart of Brussels

Amira Language School is now based at 54 Rue du Pépin, 1000 Brussels, in one of the most central and attractive parts of the city. This location places the school in the heart of Brussels, in an area that is lively, elegant and full of character.

With metro transport and public parking just next to the school, getting here is easy and convenient. For students, this means not only a practical location, but also the opportunity to study in a part of Brussels that feels truly connected to the life of the city.

The neighbourhood around Porte de Namur is vibrant and international, with cafés, restaurants, shops and all the energy of central Brussels close at hand. At the same time, the school is only a short distance from some of the city's most attractive places, including the Sablon, the Mont des Arts and Egmont Park.

This balance between accessibility, culture and atmosphere makes the area especially appealing. It is a place where students can come to class easily, enjoy their surroundings and experience Brussels in a natural and inspiring way.

Inside the school, students benefit from a bright and calm atmosphere, with comfortable classrooms equipped with interactive screens, helping to create very good conditions for learning.

Our objective is to ensure the continuity of training in the best possible conditions for all our students.

At Amira, we believe that the setting of a school is part of the learning experience. Our new home reflects the spirit of the school: open, welcoming, international and at the centre of Brussels life.
